Ho! For Gipsey Hill Park.

The pleasure in store for the citizens of Staunton when they shall have the resort of a park should be appreciated in its degrees of progress One avenue in the new park is graded, and by way of seeing and observing the commencement of this improvement, Messrs Burke, and Harman, and Brown, the Liverymen of the city, will parade their carriages and rolling stock in front of the City Hall tomorrow (Thursday) at 12 o'clock and extend a cordial invitation to all disposed to take a free ride to the park, to accept their invitation.